DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a candy with a gelatin shell, classified in class 426, subclass 103.
 - II. Claims 9-13, drawn to a candy with a natural polymer surrounding layer, classified in class 426, subclass 89.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are directed to a candy with a flavoring consisting of a hydrophilic flavor encapsulated within a gelatin shell as claimed in group I, and a candy with a center filled liquid portion as claimed in group II.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
5. During a telephone conversation with Ted Carvis on January 8, 2004 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims

1-8. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 9-13 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Specification

7. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: page 1 refers to a Cherukuri Pat. No. "5,014,595", however this number is incorrect.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

9. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 1-8 recite "hydrophilic" flavors while the specification only appears to disclose "hydrophobic" flavors. In order to speed along prosecution, it will be assumed that "hydrophobic" was the intended term.

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

11. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

12. Claims 1 and 3-8 recite "candy comprising a flavoring component consisting of". It is not clear whether other components and materials can be used, or not.

13. Claim 2 recites the limitation "the liquid flavoring portion". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

14. Claim 2 recites the limitation "the outer candy portion". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

15. Claim 3 recites a "chewy candy candy". It is not clear what this is.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

16. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1761

17. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wampler et al [Pat. No. 5,759,599].

Wampler et al teach candy comprising a flavoring component consisting of a hydrophobic flavor encapsulated within a gelatin shell (Examples D & 37-39) and an absence of boiling. Recitations such as "hard", "chewy", and "gummy" have not been given patentable weight because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

18. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Soeda et al [Pat. No. 6,592,916], Mutka et al [Pat. No. 6,607,778], and Yang [Pat. No. 4,448,789] teach candies with hydrophilic and hydrophobic flavors.
